Pam Bartlett has over 25 years experience as an executive coach consultant, and corporate trainer. She is a Principal and Senior Partner with Avatar Resources, Inc. Avatar Resources is an international management development and leadership consulting firm with affiliate offices in four countries. It is headquartered near Seattle.

Pam is a recognized expert in the development and use of communication strategies and relationship dynamics that further productivity, performance, and satisfaction in the work environment. Her work focuses on the influence of these areas on high performance teams and their leaders. She holds a Masters degree in Educational Psychology from the University of Washington and she has developed numerous programs and resources for clients worldwide. Additionally, she is certified as an executive and organizational coach by the Hudson Institute of Santa Barbara, is certified as a somatic coach by the Strozzi Institute, and is a long time member of the International Coach Federation.

Pam has been a Featured Speaker at the Junior Chamber of Commerce World Congresses in Seoul, Honolulu, Manila, Cannes, Sapporo, and Copenhagen. She is recognized as being instrumental in the successful establishment of one of the Northwest's most successful transportation companies and has worked worldwide with a number of Fortune 50 clients including Starbucks, Microsoft, and Nokia and in the health care industry with Olympic Memorial Hospital. Over the past two decades she has developed many programs that are recognized by participants and client firms for their impact and immediate usability. Some of these programs include: Honesty in the Workplace, Ideals in Motion, Performance Coaching for Results, The Truth About Fear, Leadership Coaching From the Inside Out, Authentic Leadership and Fierce Coaching.

With an additional focus on the unique challenges women executives face in the workplace, Pam has designed and delivered executive leadership retreats and personal development seminars for women clients around the world. She is the best selling author of the book Women Connected: A Session by Session Coaching Guide for Women's Groups.

Extremely active in business she also maintains a fierce commitment for contributing to the greater community in which she participates and lives. Pam is a former member of the Executive Committee and held the office of National Chairperson of the Board of Directors of Mothers Against Violence In America (MAVIA) from 1998-2000. She is a former member of the Washington State Bar Association Disciplinary Board and is a founding member of Children's Hospital Speakers Guild.
